Brian Meeks novel, "Henry Wood : Time And Again" (Henry Wood Detective Series) is a very good read. From the moment I began the novel I couldn't put it down until the last word. Brian Meeks' character development brings the reader into a personal relationship with Henry, and each character Henry comes in contact with.

Ideal Suggestion Though Mental Photography by Henry Wood

Henry Wood: Time and Again is the second installment in the Henry Wood Detective Series. Author Brian Meeks has hit another one out of the ballpark with this fun and fascinating private eye novel. Set in the middle of last century, the book has all the hallmarks of a film noire detective story, without being trite or indulging in cliché.

Henry Wood was one of the very first New Thought authors. His books were widely read both in New Thought circles and far beyond them. Horatio Dresser, another very influential figure in the early development of the movement, writes of him as the first to seek to spread the new ideas through publicity.
