That Old Cape Magic by Richard Russo | Book Club

That Old Cape Magic is Pulitzer Prize-winning American author Richard Russo's seventh novel. First published in 2009, [1] the novel is much lighter in content than his previous work, the somber 2007 work Bridge of Sighs, which followed some upstate New York characters across several decades.

That Old Cape Magic - Wikipedia

Set in Cape Cod, California, and Maine rather than upstate New York, That Old Cape Magic is smaller in scope than Russo's previous novels but nonetheless contains Russo's trademark psychological complexity. While reviewers disagreed about the novel's overall success, they concurred that Griffin's quarrelsome, bitter parents -- whom Griffin can't seem to shed -- steal the show.
